TWELVE OF THE DEAD

Taken From the Ruins of the

FIFTY-EIGHT STILL MISSING.

Large Forces of Men Working Day and Night Searching the Ruins for Dead Bodies—Three Days Before All the Debris Can Be Removed—Only Three Bodies Identified.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—At 1 o'clock this morning there is nothing on which to base a correct estimate of those who perished in the Hotel Royal on Sunday morning. It is positively known that there were 152 persons in the hotel at the time of the fire, and of these eighty-two are known to be safe. Twelve bodies have been recovered, which leaves fifty-eight persons unaccounted for. That some of these escaped is certain, and it is equally certain that a portion of those escaping, perhaps all, will forever keep their identity secret for obvious reasons.

Only when the last piece of debris has been removed from the ruins will the number of dead be positively ascertained. The work of identification is very slow. This is due partly to the horrible condition of the bodies recovered. But a stronger reason, it is believed, is that people do not wish to publish the names of relatives and friends in order to avoid scandal.

All day yesterday a large force of men were kept constantly at work. The heaps of debris grew higher and higher until Fortieth street was completely blocked. Toward 5 o'clock a steam derrick was placed on Fortieth street, and a number of electric lights were strung in order that the work might be continued all night. Mr. Galligan, the contractor, said that he thought it would be three days before the ruins could be entirely removed and examined. Work, he said, had been very minute.

The victims of the fire were removed to the morgue at the foot of East Twenty-sixth street as fast as they were taken from the ruins. They were placed in rows and known as No. 1, 2, 3, etc., and their various descriptions and a description of the articles found near them were set forth on a piece of writing paper which was tacked to the cover of the caskets. All day long a stream of persons entered the place in quest of missing friends and relatives.

Up to noon only one body, that of the Broadway merchant, Harry J. Levy, had been recognized. A little later body No. 7, that of a man with arms folded across his breast and bowed head, as if to protect his face, was identified as that of A. A. Townsend, of 414 Church street, New Haven, Conn. He had evidently made a desperate effort to escape, as he had hurriedly dressed himself in trousers and vest, not stopping to remove his night shirt, which he still wore. The identification in this case was most complete.

The bodies were viewed by hundreds during the afternoon, but none were identified until late in the evening when that of Mrs. Mary Begley, the housekeeper of the Hotel Royal, was fully identified.

Hot Congressional Fight.

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Feb. 9.—The fight for congressman in the Ninth district will be of more than ordinary interest this year. This district embraces Tippecanoe, Benton, Warren, Clinton, Howard, Tipton, Boone and Hamilton counties. Already there are five Republican candidates figuring for the nomination, the list including ex-Congressman Cheadle, of Frankfort; Daniel Wagh, of Tipton; Representative Haggard, of Lafayette; and T. J. Lindley and Robert Graham, of this city. Wagh is the present congressman, and there is little favoring his return save the precedent making it customary to give a second term.

Playfully Shoots His Friend.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., Feb. 9.—About seven miles north of this place resides a farmer by the name of Gattlieb Knecht, and with him lives his brother Christian, who is a gunsmith. Yesterday August Gunderblom and Charles Smith, aged respectively fifteen years, took a gun over to Mr. Knecht to have it repaired. In the corner of the room stood an old shotgun. Presently Smith picked the gun up, and leveling it at his friend, playfully remarked: "August, if you were a robber I would kill you," and in an instant the gun was discharged and Gunderblom fell to the floor dead, with his head blown off.

Drunk Father Killed by His Son.

LOGAN, O., Feb. 9.—John Beckel, the twenty-one-year-old son of Louis Beckel, of Union Furnace, shot and instantly killed his father Saturday evening. The father, who was a stoutly built man, fifty-eight years old, came home drunk and quarreled with his wife. He seized a large knife and threatened to kill the family, saying he would begin on John. As he started for his son, the latter pulled his revolver and fired, the ball entering his father's brain, killing him instantly. Young Beckel was arrested, but has public sympathy with him.

Seven Hours of Suffering.

MUNCIE, Ind., Feb. 9.—John O'Heron, alias Hamilton Tweedy, for nineteen years employed by the Hemingray Glass company, Saturday night, while intoxicated, sought shelter in a public water-closet from the storm, and he fell into the vault underneath. He lay for seven hours unable to get out, and died soon after his rescue. The deceased was aged thirty, and unmarried.

LABOR STATISTICS.

Some Interesting Figures Relating to Workingmen's Wages.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 9.—Returns received by State Commissioner of Labor Statistics John McBride from 1,976 of the largest and most important industrial establishments in the state of Ohio show the following results:

First—The cost of materials, $121,830,810, added to $53,540,794, the amount paid in wages and salaries, makes $175,371,604, the entire cost of production; this deducted from $310,720,732, or the whole value of product, leaves a net profit of $55,349,122, or 24.58 per cent. of $143,802,911, the whole capital invested.

Second—The capital invested equals $1,365,223 per employe.

Third—By deducting the cost of materials from the value of product, the balance is the combined earnings of capital and labor, of which labor receives 60.23 per cent. and capital 39.77 per cent. (Labor here includes wages, earnings and salaries of officers.)

Fourth—Of the $175,371,604 entering into the cost of production, 30.53 per cent. was paid in salaries and wages, and the balance, 69.47 per cent., was paid for materials.

Fifth—The total number of employes drawing $58,640,794 in wages and salaries is 195,357; of this number 6,076 are managers, bookkeepers, salesmen and clerks, drawing in the aggregate $6,833,458, an average salary of $1,124.63 each. Deducting 6,076 from 195,353 and $6,833,458 from $58,640,794, we have 189,277 wage earners receiving $16,707,336, or an average of $470.05 each per annum.

Sixth—Dividing the number of days worked during the year by the number of employes, gives a working year of 294 days, which at $470.05 year gives an average daily wages of $1.59.

Seventh—The average number of hours worked per day is nine and seven-tenths, this gives an average hourly wages of sixteen and three-tenths cents.

A CRIME OF HIGHBINDER.

Dr. Yee, a Respected Physician, Murdered Without Cause.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 9.—Dr. Chney Sue Yee, a Chinese physician, well known and respected, died yesterday from a wound inflicted on him by two Chinese Highbinders Saturday evening. The murder was most wanton and unprovoked even for Chinatown. The doctor was cooking his dinner in the rear of his house on Dupont street, when two Chinese entered and committed a nuisance.

The doctor requested them to stop, when without a word one of them drew a pistol and shot Yee in the abdomen. The assassins fled and have not been captured. Usually the Chinese murdered here are members of one of the warring societies, but Dr. Yee does not belong to any of these. It is thought possible the Six companies will take the matter up and hand over the murderers to justice, otherwise the chance of capturing them is very slight.

The Chief Witness an Embezzler.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 9.—In the Overman court-martial trial yesterday afternoon it was developed that Rossiter, ex-chief clerk to Major Overman, and who is now appearing as the principal witness against the accused officer, was five years ago convicted of embezzling $5,000 from the Domestic Sewing Machine company. Overman's counsel declares that this will tend to weaken the case against their client.

LETTER FROM GARZA

the United States.

ALSO A SPANISH NEWSPAPER.

He Desires to Have His Position and Action Toward the United States Fully Understood—He Claims That He Has Not Violated the Neutrality Laws—An Attack on the Mexican Government and Especially President Diaz.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 9.—A sensation was created among the Mexican population and in military circles here yesterday by the publication of a letter addressed to the Hon. B. Harrison, president of the United States, from Catarino E. Garza, the revolutionary leader, in El Chinaco, the leading Spanish newspaper of this city. The letter is dated La Sierrita, in the state of Tamaulipas, Mex., Jan. 31, 1892.

CATARINO GARZA.

In his preliminary remarks to the editor Garza states that he has forwarded President Harrison the letter, but that he fears that the latter will not get it, and as he desires to have his position and action towards the United States fully understood, he sends a copy to El Chinaco for publication. The letter is for the most part an attack on the Mexican government and particularly President Diaz. He offers strong objection to being charged with having violated the neutrality laws, and defends his action as follows:

"Being a resident of Texas when I decided to raise the banner of insurrection in my beloved country, Mexico, it would be natural, logical and inevitable that I should travel through the United States territory in order to reach Mexico. That has nothing to do with the so-called neutrality laws; but suppose that I had effected a march at that time in the direction or towards Mexican territory with two or more of my countrymen, does that constitute an offense against the laws? I don't believe it does, because I know the basis of the wise and liberal constitution of your country."

Garza continues in this strain throughout his whole letter. He gives no news concerning the progress of the movement of which he is at the head.

A HARD BREAST BONE.

It Prevents a Cowardly Murderer From Taking His Miserable Life.

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—Andrew Anderson shot his wife, Annie, in the street, in a fit of jealous rage, and when chased by the police turned the revolver against himself, after trying to kill Captain Couch. The woman's wound was fatal. Anderson was not dangerously hurt.

Mrs. Anderson swore out a warrant for her husband yesterday afternoon before Justice Hamberger, alleging threats to kill. Two constables accompanied her to her home upon her representations that she feared violence from Anderson. Mrs. Anderson went up stairs alone. As soon as her husband saw her he drew a revolver, and as she turned to run, fired a shot into her back.

Hearing the constables running up the steps, Anderson ran out on the rear porch, jumped upon the roof of an adjoining house and from there to the ground. He ran into the basement of 318 North Franklin street, and was crouched there, pistol in hand, when the police ran in. He fired two shots at Captain Couch, and then turned the weapon toward his stomach and pulled the trigger. The bullet struck the breast bone and glanced, inflicting only a slight wound.

LOCOMOTIVE EXPLODES.

Three Men Killed, Four Others Injured, Two of Them Fatally.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 9.—When half way between Wayne Junction and Nicotina, on the Bound Brook track of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, a 10:15 o'clock last night. Engine 180, while pushing freight train 504 up a steep grade, blew up with terrific force, killing three men and injuring four others, two whom will probably die.

The killed are: George Reardon, fireman; Harvey Moore, brakeman, and an unknown man.

The injured are: Hugh Dougherty, probably fatally; John J. Moore, brakeman, probably fatally; John Buck, badly, and John D. Miller, brakeman, badly.

The engine turned completely over on its side, while the force of the explosion sent immense fragments of iron hurtling through the air for hundreds of yards.

Two Cars Wrecked.

BRAZIL, Ind., Feb. 9.—Last evening, at Salem City, a misplaced switch overturned two passenger coaches on the Brazil branch of the Evansville and Indianapolis railroad. One coach was loaded with passengers, several of whom were badly bruised and shaken up, but no one was seriously injured.

GOVERNOR BOYD SEATED.

He Takes Up the Duties as Nebraska's Chief Executive.

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 9.—Governor James E. Boyd, in response to the letter of John M. Thayer, notifying him of his (Thayer's) desire to turn over the reins of office to him, left Omaha for this city at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. He was accompanied by the chairman of the state committee, James E. Boyd, his daughter, Miss Margaret, and two of the latter's visiting friends, Mrs. Ewing, of Knoxville, Ill., and Miss Burrows, of Decatur, Ill., and a correspondent of the United Press. A large crowd of Democrats and leading citizens of Lincoln assembled at the depot to welcome Governor Boyd and his party, and he was escorted in triumph to his hotel and established in his old quarters.

Promptly at 2 o'clock the governor and party left the hotel for the governor's office. At ten minutes after 2 the door of the official apartments of the governor were opened by General Viquain, who announced: "Ladies and gentlemen, the governor of Nebraska." Every one in the room rose and stood uncovered. Governor Boyd entered, followed by the ladies that had accompanied him from Omaha. Governor Boyd walked dignifiedly to the center of the room. Tom Cook immediately extended his hand and bade the governor welcome.

Governor Thayer came out from his private office, with his hand extended, and exclaimed: "How do you do, governor." Governor Boyd made no reply nor offered to take his hand. Thayer spoke to him in a low tone and seemed to be pleading with him for at least recognition. He received none. Governor Thayer then said: "Very well, if you will not shake hands it is as well. The clerk will furnish you with an invoice of the property."

Governor Boyd answered: "I want no invoice. I am here to take possession of the office to which I was elected."

Thayer then turned and left. Tom Cook then came up and said: "Governor, you will find two penitentiary discharges unsigned, locked up in the desk. The keys are hanging on a nail behind the door and an invoice of all the effects of the office is in one of the drawers."

Governor Boyd bowed, and taking his hand walked into the private clerical room, where the ladies were seated. The governor's clerks removed their hats and coats from behind the door, after which the crowd was allowed to pass through and shake hands with James E. Boyd, governor of Nebraska. Ex-Governor Thayer then left and went home.

At the end of the public reception the several state officers entered the private office in a body and paid their respects to the new governor, and were presented to his family. Auditor Benton announced that a body of janitors would at once bring in the Sanson chair. The chair was immediately brought in, and Governor Boyd was seated in triumph.

TOWN TAKEN IN.

Citizens of Columbus, Indiana, Done Up by a Swindler.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Feb. 9.—Last week a man registering as Burt or Bent Halderman stopped at the St. Denis hotel for several days, and announced himself as a member of the Louisville Courier-Journal staff, sent to "write up" the city. He solicited money on the strength of his supposed write-up, and also contracted sundry whisky bills on this account.

Last Saturday he disappeared, having unpaid bills of $20. An overcoat belonging to E. A. Leland, a traveling salesman of Chicago, is missing from the hotel, and it is thought to have been taken by Halderman, either by mistake or otherwise. A telegram from the Courier Journal states that Halderman is not connected with that paper, and that no one was sent here to "write up" Columbus.

F-2-Z-2 BANG.

Six Boys—Dynamite Cartridge—Match, One Dead—Others Injured.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 9.—By careless handling of a stick of dynamite an explosion took place in a small frame shanty in Manyunk, resulting in the entire demolition of the building and the injury of six lads, one of whom, Charles Harris, has since died. One of the boys had found a dynamite cartridge and some black powder, which had been left by some workmen on the reservoir. The boys met at the shanty, and one of them exhibited the stick and powder. They thoughtlessly applied a match, when the explosion followed.

Locomotive Engineers' Blue Book.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 9.—Considerable interest has been occasioned among politicians by the issuance of a "blue book" by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, which places upon the black list all the senators and representatives of the last legislature who refused to advocate certain laws demanded by the brotherhood. When the book was first issued it occasioned some disagreement among the members, and was announced as unauthorized, and an effort made to call in the copies then published. Since then, however, a large number of copies have been published and are being distributed.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1892.

Congress has been in session only two months, but in that time nearly nine thousand bills have been poured into the hopper. The National law-making machinery was not got in working order until last week.

It looks like the newspaper business is in danger of being overdone at Lexington. The Kentucky Homestead was added to the already large list last week. Captain Sam Gaines' new daily will soon be launched and now comes the news that Colonel John O. Hodges will shortly revise the Observer.

The people of Nebraska elected a Democratic Governor a year or so ago, but the Republicans held on until the highest judicial authority in the land decided against them. Even then Thayer, the usurper, didn't want to give up. His conduct was so strongly condemned even by many of his own party, that he finally stepped down and out yesterday.

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican, mugwump, serves notice that there is no Hill boom in that State, and that the delegates to the convention will be for Cleveland. It says: "It is safe to say that the delegation will favor any other candidate than Hill" and it even intimates that a good share of the Bay State's Democrats will bolt, if the Senator is nominated.

Decca's Marriage.

Decca was greeted by over 6,000 people again at Cincinnati last Sunday afternoon. An exchange says: "Her marriage to Francis Leon Christman has created much comment. For two years she has been engaged to a wealthy man of Richmond, Va. Her trousseau was all made, the house was furnished, but what should she do but turn around at the last moment and reject him because he would not let her remain on the stage, which she loves better. It is said, that any man that overbreathed. A short time ago her aunt, who chaperoned her, was taken sick. Marie cast about in her mind for a way to continue her business without her aunt. A bright idea struck her, she could marry her manager, who had frequently solicited that hand, and he could chaperone her. No sooner thought than done. She informed the manager of her plans and sent out the following invitations: 'Be at Calvary Baptist Church parsonage if you wish to see me married to my manager, Francis Leon Christman.'"

For the Farmer.

There is one rule in stock raising that may be steadily and safely followed without deviation, says an exchange. It is to pack all stock to its full growth as rapidly as possible, and sell as soon as marketable.

The French Government spends $18,000,000 per year on its public highways, but their horses haul a ton and a third without any trouble. Three horses take four tons of hay ten miles without turning a hair. In Belgium, Germany and Italy, where the roads are kept good, one horse can do as much service as three in the bad road districts of America.

It is reported that a peculiar disease has broken out among the horses in La Salle County, Illinois. Nine horses have died upon one farm, five upon another, and the death of one or two on a farm is general. The disease first manifests itself in the frogs of the horse's feet, the frog swelling and becoming much inflamed. The disorder then travels up the legs, which swell as it advances, and when it reaches the body the animal dies in great agony.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

SARDIS.

The Misses Bland had a pleasant visit from Miss Jeanette Howe, of Maysville, last week.

Miss Naucle Bland is visiting friends in Maysville, and will be the guest of the Misses Dixon, of Ripley, this week.

F. P. Bland has leased the Pavilion Hotel for three years. He filled the two houses from "Little Stoner" with clear, four-luch loes.

Tom Best and W. J. Ross are buying some of our best tobacco at prices ranging from 8 to 11 1/2 cents per pound, for February delivery.

H. T. Boudlen, the box architect of Sardis, has contracted to build new residences for Willis and Mordcael Wigdina and Luther Wheatley. He has a new school house on hand, and has built himself a combined shop and home in town.

Mrs. C. C. Arthur had a dining at "Decca Glenn" Thursday, February 4th. Among her genial and pleasant guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walker R. Forman, of Mayslick; Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Traylor, of Maysville; Mr. J. J. Chandler, of Maysville; Mr. Ben Wood and Mrs. Len Y. Browning and sister, Miss Laura Bailey of California.

Hon. Mr. Toombs, an inviolable visitor to Blue Lick Springs from St. Paul, Minn., came over to Shannon with Mr. Frank Bland to visit the Bland family. He is a chronic sufferer from bilious hypochondria. He finds these famous waters and balsamic air not only the best of nerves, but a reviving tonic, a gentle aperient and an excellent alternative. His two months' stay at the Springs has benefited him more than the $1,500 given to emperors and quack nostrums. He expressed a quart of the water to the State chemist of Minnesota for analysis.

The Shannon and Forman's (Chapel) turnpike is the name of the projected road connecting these two points with Fleming connection to Fairview, over the old Buffalo, Middle Trace route. Your accomplished engineer, W. C. Felham, surveyed the route and pronounced it an easy grade, an abundance of stone for bridge abutments and metal of road, a fine natural road-bed and a great public necessity. Now is the time to stir the people to take up the project, while the material is cheap and the work is easy. The road will be a great benefit to the community, and will be a great benefit to the community, and will be a great benefit to the community.

The leading ladies of Shannon and Sardis worked harmoniously, and the festival last week was a pronounced success. Gross receipts $130. In closing out several cakes were sold by auctioneer Dye at an average of $1 each. His "thanks" were applauded. The music by Ray's Cornet Band—especially the rendition of "The Dixie Rag"—was very impressive. The Harpists, Palmer, Grigsby and Tomlin, with Miss Allie Dratton organist, gave "The Golden Stairs," and "Boulevard March" with much sweetness and taste. Revs. Jolly and Westman, Drs. Browning and Downing and other leading citizens patronized the oyster and ice cream tables. The pretty waitresses in fancy costumes were drawing cards. The attractive visitors from other points of the county were thought all the handsome girls had gone off in the matrimonial epidemic till he came to Sardis and saw what an abundant crop of "rose-buds" and "sweet sixteen's" and fascinating "eighteens" were not to mention the bewitching widows, were blooming out.

La Grippe!

The tendency of this disease toward pneumonia is what makes it dangerous. La Grippe requires precisely the same treatment as a severe cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of severe colds. This Remedy effectually counteracts the tendency of the disease to result in pneumonia, provided that proper care be taken to avoid exposure when recovering from the attack. Careful inquiry among the many thousands who have used this remedy during the epidemics of the past two years has failed to discover a single case that has not recovered or that has resulted in pneumonia. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by Power & Reynolds.

A Pleasing Sense

Of health and strength renewed and of ease and comfort follows the use of Syrup of Figs, as it acts in harmony with nature to effectually cleanse the system when costive or bilious. For sale in 50 cents and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

Weekly Review of Cincinnati Tobacco Market.

The offerings at auction for the week just closed were 2,918 hhds, classed as follows: 850 hhds Mason County (Ky.) District; 442 hhds Owen County (Ky.) District; 317 hhds Owen County (Ky.) District; 353 hhds Blue Grass (Ky.) District; 130 hhds Brown County (Ohio) District; and 14 hhds West Virginia. Of these 1,388 were new, against 3,201 of the previous week, of which 1,362 hhds were new, and 2,847 hhds corresponding week last year, of which 1,064 hhds were new. Total offerings for the year to date 13,584 hhds, of which 5,815 hhds were new, against 13,228 hhds same time last year, of which 2,487 hhds were new.

Receipts for the week.....1,545
Receipts same week last year.....1,780
The offerings, while not as large as previous week, were heavy, and the receipts were of good size, taking into consideration the weather, which has not been favorable for pricing. The past week has been a very satisfactory one, prices paid gave general satisfaction and rejection were, as of late, comparatively light. There was a full attendance of buyers, who were active bidders, and there was a firm and active market throughout the entire week. The same active demand that has prevailed for common trash, lugs and nondescripts (old) continues, and prices of the past two weeks were fully maintained. Medium leaf and red tobacco show no changes from former reports, while being in good request, there is not the desire to secure these grades as is shown for other kinds. The number of hogsheads of better grades offered is very small, but for such the demand is active at full figures.

For all grades of new there was a strong, active market. Good and fine leaf was in active demand and taken readily at prices, quite a number selling at from $2.00 to $2.50. Common and medium leaf is in active request and sells well. Common and low grades show an active demand and bring satisfactory prices.
Of the 1,385 hhds, (new) 50 sold from $1 to $3.95, 224 from $1 to $5.95, 377 from $6 to $7.35, 288 from $8 to $9.35, 328 from $10 to $14.75, 177 from $15 to $19.75, 10 from $20 to $22 and 1 at $25.
Of the 1,383 hhds, (old) 180 sold from $1 to $3.95, 312 from $1 to $3.95, 640 from $6 to $7.35, 324 from $8 to $9.35, 191 from $10 to $14.75, 15 from $15 to $19.75, 17 from $20 to $22 and 1 at $25.75.

It has been held by a Supreme Court, in a case where a widow sued a hotel man to recover damages for the loss of her husband who had become intoxicated in his place and perished from exposure while on his way home, that the drinker could not be held for contributory negligence because the habitual toper is irresponsible and cannot control his appetite or actions. The judgment was therefore in favor of the widow for damages.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

Newton Bradford Caught in the Shafting at the Cotton Mills and Receives a Broken Arm.

Newton Bradford, an employe of the Maysville Cotton Mills, met with a serious accident late yesterday afternoon. He was caught in some of the machinery, and came near losing his life on the spot.

The unfortunate young man started to shift some belting when a part of his clothing was caught, and the next instant he was violently drawn into some shafting. The shafting was close to a wall or the ceiling, and his body was drawn against it and held in the relentless grasp of the machinery until the engine was stopped, which was done as soon as possible.

When removed from his dangerous position, it was found that his right arm was broken in two places, once between the wrist and elbow and once between the elbow and shoulder. It was thought for a while that his back also was broken, but it was only painfully injured. He was badly bruised about the body, and his escape from death was a narrow one. He is about eighteen years of age, and is a son of John Bradford.

Points in Tomato Culture.

The Rural New Yorker has raised tomatoes experimentally for twenty years, and it is the belief based thereon that varieties vary greatly from year to year, let the seed selections be made ever so carefully. They vary in size, color, smoothness and quality as to fruit, while the plants vary as to vigor and productiveness, all in a way and to an extent which cannot satisfactorily be accounted for by differences of soil, manures, fertilizers or weather conditions. It is suggested that readers try tomato-bagging. Tomatoes protected in paper bags last season were free from blemish, color intensified and fruit matured earlier than fruit not thus protected.

Death of Dr. Tate.

Major Ohenoweth received a telegram yesterday bringing the sad news of the death of his brother-in-law, Dr. J. H. Tate, at Fern Bank, Cincinnati. Deceased was stricken with paralysis several days ago, the attack terminating fatally Sunday evening. He was seventy-six years of age, and was one of the oldest practicing physicians of Cincinnati. Major Ohenoweth and sister, Mrs. Laura Dimmitt, will attend the funeral, which takes place to-morrow, at St. Paul Church, Cincinnati.

They Got Enough.

The "old-time" roustabouts had much fun with an innocent-looking country darkey on the levee Friday until he reached out, grabbed one of them by the back of the neck and mopped up the levee with him. After he was done with him he looked around at the crowd standing off some distance and asked: "Any mo' you town niggahs want ter hab fun wid me? I like it." But they had seen enough, and let country look at the boats in peace and silence.—Louisville Times.

MRS. S. J. BLISS.

Her Illness Terminates Fatally—She Passed Away Last Night.

Mrs. S. J. Bliss, whose serious illness was mentioned yesterday, passed away last night at the home of her son, Mr. Aaron Bliss, of Cincinnati. Death resulted from pneumonia, superinduced by an attack of the grippe. She was ill but a few days. She had gone to Cincinnati on a visit to her son, and was stricken down shortly after arriving there.

Mrs. Bliss was sixty-seven years of age. Her maiden name was Sidwell, and she was a native of this county. Four children survive, two sons and two daughters—Messrs. Aaron and Charles Bliss, of Cincinnati, Mrs. Ida Owey, of Ironton, and Mrs. Simon Nelson, of this city. Her husband passed away many years ago.

The remains will be brought to Maysville this afternoon or to-night for burial. The funeral arrangements have not yet been announced.

The date of the first issue has not yet been fixed, but it will be about two weeks hence. The staff of the new paper has not been selected, with the exception of Major Alex. G. "DR. THOS. F. ALLISON," who used a good deal of printer's ink here last spring advertising himself as a "specialist" specially qualified for the treatment of catarrh, has come to grief at Massillon, O. Our dispatches yesterday gave particulars. He jumped his board bill at Massillon, and was arrested on suspicion while trying to work the confidence game in Pittsburgh. He pleaded guilty in the Mayor's Court and was fined $100 and costs, and sentenced to three months imprisonment in the county jail. He represented himself as "Dr. Stevens," "Dr. Marshall," and "Dr. Allison."

An Early Wedding.

Deputy County Clerk John O. Lovel was aroused from his slumbers at 2 o'clock this morning by Mr. John Corbett, of Washington, who was anxious to secure a license to marry Miss Katie Higgins, also of this county, a daughter of Mr. Thomas Higgins. The parents of the young lady objected, hence the elopement. Mr. Lovel is always ready to render all the assistance in his power in such cases, the license was granted and at an early hour the couple were married by Father Glorieux.
